

be deemed a sufficient cause of removal, and they shall be so removed.

SEC. 45. And be it enacted, That the said state fishery force shall have charge and control of the enforcement of all laws of this state relating to fish, whether general or local, and the several deputy commanders of sloops or vessels shall be required to visit the tributaries and streams of their respective districts at least once in two weeks between the first day of May and the first day of October, and at any other time when notified by citizens or others of violations, and they shall arrest and bring to trial all persons found violating any acts of assembly, and cause them to be tried and punished as provided for by law.

Enforce a laws.

Arrest all violators.

SEC. 46. And be it enacted, That the commander of said force shall have the control and direction of the said force under the supervision of the board of public works, with power to direct their movements, and shall have an office in the city of Annapolis, to which place all complaints, applications for assistance and reports from deputy commanders shall be addressed, and shall be permitted to have one clerk at a salary of six hundred dollars per year.

Office of commander.

SEC. 47. And be it enacted, That nothing contained in this act shall be construed to affect any prosecutions for the violation of the existing law in this state or for offences against the same, committed before the passage of this act.

Not effect prosecutions.

SEC. 48. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Effective.

Approved April 8, 1884.