

cases by law for the recovery of the penalties thereunto affixed, they may affix thereto such reasonable fines, not exceeding fifty dollars in any case, as to them may appear right, and, in default of the payment of any fine imposed, they may provide for the imprisonment of the offender for a period not exceeding twenty days, or until the fine be paid; and, instead of the aforesaid penalties, it shall be lawful, in case of the conviction of any person for vagrancy, to sentence such person to hard work for a period not exceeding ten days.

Affix reasonable fines.

SEC. 129. That all ordinances heretofore passed by the mayor and council of Hagerstown, and now in force, and not in conflict with the provisions of this act, are hereby continued in force until the same are repealed or modified.

Ordinances to be continued in force.

SEC. 130. All ordinances passed in pursuance of the powers conferred by section one hundred and twenty-eight, shall be sent to the mayor for his approval. He shall return the same to the next general or special meeting of the council, with his approval or disapproval. Any ordinance returned by the mayor, with his disapproval, shall not become a law, unless subsequently passed at the first regular meeting thereafter by a four-fifths vote of the council.

Mayor to approve or disapprove.

SEC. 131. The mayor and council shall have power to compel all turnpike companies, whose roads or any part thereof lie within the limits of the town, to perform all the duties and obligations imposed upon them by their respective charters or the laws of this state, upon such parts thereof as are within the limits of the town, and shall have power to enter into arrangements with the said turnpike companies in relation to the grading, paving and repairing of the parts of their respective roads lying within the limits of the town.

Obligations of turnpike companies.

SEC. 132. The several turnpike companies owning roads running into the town may cede to the town such parts of their roads as lie within the limits of the town, upon such terms as may be agreed upon between the mayor and council and said companies, and the same when ceded shall in all respects be subject to the same regulations as the public streets of the town.

Turnpike companies may cede

SEC. 133. The mayor and council shall have the right to condemn the parts of all public highways lying within the limits of the town for public use,

Right to condemn.