

resident of the State of Maryland may be eligible to appointment as a Trustee of the said corporation.

Effective.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 10, 1886.

CHAPTER 10.

AN ACT to amend and re-enact section twenty-seven, of article sixteen, of the Code of Public General Laws, entitled "Chancery," sub-title "Divorce."

Repealed, amended and re-enacted.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section twenty-seven, of article sixteen, of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Chancery," sub-title "Divorce," be and the same is hereby repealed, amended and re-enacted so as to read as follows :

Applications for divorce.

27. No person shall be entitled to make application for a divorce, where the causes for divorce occurred out of this State, unless the party complainant or defendant shall have resided within this State for two years next preceding such application.

Effective.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 10, 1886.