

Misdemeanor.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That any person or persons violating any of the provisions of the preceding section of this act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof before any Justice of the Peace for said county, shall pay a fine of five dollars for each and every partridge, woodcock or rabbit shot or taken; one-half of said fine to be paid to the informer, and the remainder as hereafter directed; and on failure to pay said fine shall be lodged in the county jail for ten days.

License.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any person not a bona fide resident of said county to shoot or trap any partridges, woodcock, rabbits, or any other wild game in this said county, without having first obtained from the Clerk of the Circuit Court for said county a license permitting the person named in such license to shoot or trap wild game in said county for one year from the day on which said license is issued, and that the person named therein, or the party procuring such license shall pay to said Clerk for such license the sum of four dollars and fifty cents to the Clerk for his fee for issuing said license; and any non-resident convicted before any Justice of the Peace of said county for gunning within the limits of said county without a license so to do, shall be fined twenty dollars for the first and for every subsequent offence; on failure to pay said fine, the offender shall be confined in county jail for ten days; provided, that owners may extend privilege of killing said game upon his or her own lands to whomsoever he may.

Penalty.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any person to ship, or attempt to ship, for the purpose of selling elsewhere at any season of the year, any partridge, woodcock or rabbit that has been shot or trapped in said county, into any other county or State without having first obtained from the Clerk
