

chapter two hundred and twenty-eight of the acts of eighteen hundred and seventy-two, entitled "An act to repeal and re-enact section twenty of an act passed at the present session of the General Assembly of Maryland," entitled "An act to regulate the inspection of tobacco," be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

SEC. 11. Every Inspector shall have uncased and break every hogshead of tobacco that may be delivered for inspection in not less than five different places for Maryland and Ohio, and not less than three different places for Kentucky and Virginia, and in as many more places as may be necessary to fully determine the contents of said hogshead; and if the Inspector shall be of the opinion that such tobacco is sound, clean and in good order, then he shall select from each break as many bundles as will correctly represent the different qualities of tobacco contained in the break, and the bundles so selected shall be considered the sample of the hogshead; he shall also have the hogshead properly marked with its number, the year of inspection, and the names legibly written of the owner on each head and bilge, and shall have the tare and net weight marked with iron on the bilge.

Sample.

SEC. 12. If any Inspector shall, upon examination of any hogshead of tobacco, have reason to suspect that the same is trash or false packed, he shall cause the same to be shaken out and repacked, and shall charge for so doing the sum of two dollars per hogshead, the same to be paid by the owner or his agent, and if any Inspector shall find that the package, cask or hogshead containing said tobacco is constructed of green or unseasoned timber, it shall be his duty to uncase said tobacco and furnish a new and dry package, cask or hogshead for the same at the cost and expense of the owner of said tobacco or his agent; said cost and expense not to exceed, however, the sum of one dollar for each package, cask or hogshead so furnished.

Repack.
