

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners may meet from time to time as often as occasion shall require, upon the business of the corporation, and not less than once in every three months; and they shall, at their first meeting after an election, choose one of their number as President of the Board, whose duty it shall be to preside at all meetings of the Commissioners, preserve order and enforce the by-laws of the corporation; and the President of the Commissioners shall, by virtue of his office, have and exercise within the limits of the corporation, all the jurisdiction and powers of a Justice of the Peace, except as to civil cases and the acknowledgment of deeds, and shall receive in all criminal cases the same fees which are now allowed by law to a Justice of the Peace in similar cases, but all such fees shall be paid into the treasury of the town; and all fines collected by the President of the Commissioners, or by any Justice of the Peace for violation of any by-laws of the said town, shall be paid into the treasury of the said town.

Officers' duties and powers.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That the president of the Commissioners shall be the treasurer of the corporation, and shall give bond to the Commissioners, with security, to be approved by them in such penalty as they shall prescribe, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duty as treasurer, and shall receive and pay away money according to the direction of the Commissioners, and shall report to them at least every three months what disposition he has made of the same.

Treasurer.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Commissioner or other officer elected or appointed under this charter to be engaged or concerned, directly or indirectly, in any contract for any work done or to be done for or on account of said town, or in which the said town is or may be in any way concerned, in the purchase of any debt due
