SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the treasurer, or other appointed officer of this corporation, within ten days after the first day of January and the first day of July in each year, by written or printed demand signed by him, to require from every corporation, association, underwriter, agent or person engaged in the business of fire insurance in the city of Baltimore, the statement provided for in section six of this act, such demand may be delivered personally at the office of such corporation, association, agent or person, or at the residence of the proper officer of such corporation, association, agent or person, and every officer of such corporation or association, and every individual, agent or underwriter, who shall for thirty days after such demand, neglect to render the account, shall forfeit fifty dollars for the use of the corporation created by this act, and he shall forfeit for its use twenty dollars in addition for every day he shall so neglect, after the expiration of said thirty days ; and such additional penalty may be computed and recovered up to the time of the trial of any suit for the recovery thereof; which penalties may be sued for and recovered with costs of suit, in any of the Courts of Law in the city of Baltimore having jurisdiction, or before a Justice of the Peace in the said city of Baltimore, by and in the name of the corporation hereby created.

Official demand for same.

Penalty.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That whenever services may be rendered by this corporation in saving any property not insured by any of the companies which may be members of this corporation from fire, or in protecting the same from loss or damage during or after a fire, the property so saved or protected from loss or damage, shall be liable to assessment for salvage for such services rendered, and the value of such services may be determined by agreement, but in case differences should arise regarding the value of such services, the same shall be referred to two impartial arbitrators

Salvage.