

there shall be a public or law parade of said respective bodies at least once a year, on such days and at such place or places as the Commander-in-Chief shall designate.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the Commander-in-Chief shall order an encampment of all said organizations once in every two years, to be held at such time and place, and for such length of time as he may determine.

Encampment.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That the Commander-in-Chief shall require all of said organizations to adopt a service uniform, which shall be assimilated as near as possible to that of the United States troops, with such modifications, however, as to him may seem advisable, but in making any such changes the same must be done gradually, and not to be enforced in any one year, but with a due regard to economy and consistent with the utilization of all serviceable uniforms now in use in said organizations.

Uniform.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That whenever said organizations shall be ordered into camp as aforesaid, or whenever ordered out by the Commander-in-Chief, each enlisted man shall be entitled to one dollar and thirty-three cents for each and every day he serves in said camp, and that the officers, according to their rank, shall be entitled to pay at the same rate per diem that officers in the service of the United States receive, and the officer detailed for inspection of said force, as above provided, shall be entitled to transportation and pay for the time so occupied, such as officers of his rank would receive in the services of the United States; provided, however, that all of said allowances or pay shall be paid only out of the general appropriation for the militia then already existing, and none of said allowances shall be made unless there is sufficient money of said appropriation on hand and otherwise unused; but in order to provide a fund for the Pay of men.

Of officers.