

and the fifteenth day of June; plover or sand-pipers, partridges and quail between the first day of January and the first day of November; wood or summer ducks between the first day of January and the tenth day of September; squirrels between the fifteenth day of February and the first day of September; rabbits between the fifteenth day of February and the first day of November; minks, otters and musk-rats between the fifteenth day of March and the fifteenth day of December; and each and every person violating the provisions of this section shall be fined ten dollars for each and every woodcock, plover or sand-piper, partridge, quail, duck, squirrel, rabbit, mink, otter or musk-rat so killed, taken, trapped, shot or destroyed within said specified time, and possession of any of the within-named birds or game, dead or alive, within any of the specified times by any person or persons in said county shall be deemed unlawful, and be punishable by a fine of ten dollars for each and every bird or animal named in this act.

Penalty.

Possession of.

Approved April 1, 1886.