

from the entry of any judgment, (unless upon a motion or application made within that time), shall have the same effect and force as it would have had under such previous practice, if taken or passed after the expiration of said term, and no more; and the said Courts shall respectively have, for a period of thirty days after the doing of any act or thing in any cause before them, the same revisory power and control over such act or thing which, under the practice heretofore existing, they would have had over the same during the term at which it was done, and no more; and after thirty days from the doing of any such act or thing, the said Courts shall have the same revisory power and control thereover which, under such previous practice, they would have had after the expiration of the term at which said act or thing was done, and no more.

Revisory power.

175. In all cases where the laws of this State, as they existed before the passage of this act, direct or require that any act or thing shall be done in or by any of said Courts during the same term at which some other act or thing may be done or happen, such first mentioned act or thing shall hereafter be done within thirty days after the doing or happening of said last mentioned act or thing.

Acts dependent upon previous.

176. All appeals from Justices of the Peace to the Baltimore City Court, shall stand for trial on the day following the return day to which the appellee shall be returned summoned, or the second return day to which the summons issued for the appellee shall be returned non est.

Trial of Justices' Appeals.

And be it further enacted, That this act shall go into effect the second Monday of April, in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-six.

Effective.

Approved April 7, 1886.