

or in any other State of the United States, in behalf of and for the benefit of the Baltimore Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and the same to manage, grant, convey, lease or otherwise dispose of, and to execute such trust or trusts as may be confided to such corporation, the whole to be under the supervision of and amenable to the said Baltimore Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Trusts.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the said corporation shall also be deemed competent to receive and administer any special benevolent trust on behalf of the Methodist Episcopal Church, or any religious, charitable or benevolent object connected with said church that may be confided or entrusted to it.

Officers.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That the said corporation shall have a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary and a Treasurer—such officers to be chosen by said corporation from their own members as often as they may see proper, and according to rules or by-laws to be by them prescribed—and the said corporation shall have authority to appoint such other officers and servants as shall by them, the said corporation, be deemed necessary.

Quorum.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That five members of said corporation, whereof the President, or, in his absence, the Vice-President, shall be one, shall be a sufficient number to transact the business thereof, and to make by-laws, rules and regulations.

Receipts and disbursements.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That the said corporation shall cause fair and regular entries of their proceedings and a just account of their receipts and disbursements to be kept in a book or books provided for that purpose, and their Treasurer shall exhibit to the Baltimore Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church at every annual meeting of said Conference, a full and accurate report of the state of the accounts of said corporation.

Approved April 7, 1886.
