

CHAPTER 28.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact section sixty-two, of Article twenty, of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Talbot county," sub-title "Easton," relating to licensing dogs.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section sixty-two, of article twenty, of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Talbot county," sub-title "Easton," relating to licensing dogs, be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

Repealed and re-enacted.

SEC. 62. No dog or bitch shall be kept or harbored or permitted to run at large within the limits of Easton, unless the said dog or bitch shall have a collar about his or her neck to which shall be attached a licensed number, to be furnished by the Commissioners of Easton, who are hereby required to have the same prepared and the said license shall expire on the first day of May next thereafter; and if granted for a part of a year pro rata sum shall be charged therefor. It shall be the duty of the Bailiff of Easton to kill all dogs and bitches found running at large in the said town unless licensed as herein provided, and the said bailiff shall receive from the Commissioners of Easton the sum of twenty-five cents for every dog or bitch so killed. No one in Easton shall keep or suffer to be kept or harbored on his premises, any dog or bitch which is not licensed as herein provided; the owner or keeper of a dog or bitch in Easton shall pay to the Commissioners of Easton annually, the sum of one dollar and fifty cents for every dog, and the sum of two dollars and fifty cents for every bitch, and the evidence of the payment of the same shall be a receipt of the Commissioners of Easton for the same, and the number attached to the collar of the dog or bitch. No

Dog-licens