

SEC. 193. The Sheriff of Baltimore county shall be allowed two dollars and fifty cents a day for each day he shall attend the Circuit Court for Baltimore county, in person or by deputy, when said Court is actually in session, and shall be entitled to charge and receive the sum of forty cents per day for keeping and boarding each prisoner committed to or confined in the jail of said county, and the County Commissioners of said county shall furnish all the fuel necessary for the heating of the county jail and the house thereto attached, as well as for the preparing and cooking the food for the prisoners confined in said jail, and shall also pay for the coal already contracted for and bought by the present Sheriff of the county for the purposes aforesaid before the passage of this bill; and such further compensation for serving bench warrants, attachments, State warrants and conveying and removing prisoners and performing extra duty as may seem to said County Commissioners of said county a fair and reasonable compensation for such services.

Allowance to Sheriff.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Effective.

Approved March 24, 1886.