

guilty of a misdemeanor, and on presentment, indictment and conviction, or on conviction before a Justice of the Peace, shall pay a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than fifty dollars for each and every offence, one-half of which to go to the informer, and one-half to the Board of County School Commissioners of said county for School purposes, and on refusal to pay said fine, be imprisoned in the county Jail for a period of not less than thirty nor more than sixty days.

Misdemeanor.

SEC. 4. No person shall, at any season of the year, wilfully destroy the eggs or nests of any of the birds above named, under the penalty of five dollars for each and every offence.

Shall not destroy eggs.

SEC. 5. It shall not be lawful for any person to kill or take any wild turkey by means of any blind, trap, snare, net or device whatsoever, between the first day of January and the fifteenth day of September, in each year, under a penalty of a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than ten dollars for each and every wild turkey so killed, taken or destroyed.

Wild Turkey.

SEC. 6. The possession by any person in the county of any of the birds above named, shot, killed or in anywise destroyed, shall be prima facie evidence to convict the person having such possession of having done such shooting, killing or destroying.

Possession.

SEC. 7. The fines provided for in sections one, four and five of this act, shall be recoverable in the name of the State before any Justice of the Peace in the county, one-half for the benefit of the informer, and one-half for the benefit of the County School fund, and said Justice imposing such fines shall have power to commit to the county Jail for the space of not less than ten nor more than thirty days, any person convicted under said sections and refusing to pay such fine; provided, however, any person thinking himself aggrieved by the de-Fines and commitment.