

the Court or the Justice of the Peace entering a judgment upon any such contract or cause of action, shall enter or cause to be entered among the docket entries of the same, "Right to exemption waived," or words to that effect, and a like entry shall be made on the back of any execution issued on said judgment; provided, however, if such waiver has been made as above stated and said entry has been omitted, nevertheless such defendant shall be estopped from demanding such exemption unless said Court or Justice of the Peace, for sufficient reasons, has entered among the docket entries of the case that said waiver is void.

Waiver of exemption.

Approved April 7, 1886.

CHAPTER 280.

AN ACT to authorize the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore to open streets and alleys through the property known as the "Cathedral Cemetery in Baltimore city," and to confer certain powers on the Trustees of said cemetery.

WHEREAS the Trustees of the Catholic Cathedral Church of Baltimore, a corporation duly created by the Laws of Maryland, is now the owner of certain cemetery or burial ground in Baltimore city, commonly called the "Cathedral Cemetery," situated between Winchester street and the south side of Tennat street; and between Arlington avenue and Stricker street; and Preamble.

WHEREAS by the terms of one or more of the acts of Assembly of Maryland, relating to the said burial ground or cemetery, it is provided that no streets, lanes or alleys shall be opened through said burial ground or cemetery without the sanction of the General Assembly of Maryland first had; and Preamble.