

Preamble. WHEREAS the public interest require that streets and alleys should be opened through the said cemetery or burial ground, and it has been represented to this General Assembly that the corporation owning the said cemetery or burial ground is willing that streets and alleys should be opened through the same; therefore,

Repeal. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all provisions in any act of the General Assembly of Maryland, prohibiting the opening of streets, lanes and alleys through the cemetery or burial ground mentioned in the preamble to this act, without the assent of the General Assembly of Maryland, be and the same are hereby repealed; and the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore may exercise in reference to opening streets and alleys through the said cemetery or burial ground, all the rights and powers which the said Mayor and City Council of Baltimore now has, or which may hereafter be conferred upon it, in reference to opening streets, lanes and alleys in the said city.

Power to open streets.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That whenever by reason of the opening of such streets, lanes or alleys, or from any other cause or reason whatsoever, the said cemetery, or any part or portion thereof, shall become, in the judgment of a majority of the Trustees of the corporation aforesaid, unsuitable for the purposes of sepulture, it shall become the duty of the said corporation, and it is hereby authorized, directed and empowered to remove all bodies interred therein, and to reinter the same in some other cemetery belonging to the said corporation, and under its supervision and control; and it shall be the further duty of the said corporation, and it is hereby further authorized, directed and empowered to assign to all lot-owners in the said Cathedral Cemetery in Baltimore city, or in the parts or portions thereof so as aforesaid determined to be unsuitable for purposes of sepulture, other lots

Removal of bodies.