

Druggists. SEC. 222. No pharmacist or druggist in Cecil county shall sell directly or indirectly any spirituous or fermented liquors, or alcoholic bitters or intoxicating drinks of any kind, except upon the written bona fide prescription of a regular practicing physician of Cecil county, whose name shall be signed thereto; and all such prescriptions shall be filed and kept by such pharmacist or druggist, and no prescription shall serve for more than one purchase, but no physician shall make or sign any such prescription unless the person for whom it is made is actually sick, or unless such liquor is required by such person as a medicine.

Penalty. SEC. 223. Any pharmacist, druggist or physician who shall violate the provisions of the preceding section, shall, upon indictment and conviction thereof, be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, and failing to pay said fine and the costs of prosecution forthwith, shall be sentenced to be confined in the Maryland House of Correction for a term not exceeding six months; provided, that a pharmacist or druggist shall not be liable to the penalties of this act for giving or selling liquors to be used by a sick person, in a case of extreme illness or sudden injury, when delay might be dangerous to such sick or injured person, or for giving or selling wine to be used for sacramental purposes only.

Proviso.

Fine. SEC. 224. Any person who shall sell directly or indirectly, at any place in Cecil county, or give away directly or indirectly at the place of business of such person, or any other person, any spirituous or fermented liquor without first having obtained a license as required by this act, shall, upon indictment and conviction thereof, be fined not less than two hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, and failing to pay such fine and the costs of prosecution forthwith, shall be sentenced
