

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That if any railroad company shall neglect or refuse to comply with the requirements of the said County Commissioners, as provided for by section one of this act, said railroad company will be liable to a fine of twenty-five dollars per day for each and every day it shall neglect or refuse so to do.

Penalty.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the said County Commissioners to enforce the payment of fines imposed by this act, as other fines are collected, before the Circuit Court of said county, and the State's Attorney thereof shall attend the prosecution of all such suits when directed so to do by the said County Commissioners.

Fine.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted. That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Effective.

Approved April 7, 1886.

CHAPTER 295.

AN ACT to provide for the further publication of the Archives of Maryland.

WHEREAS the Maryland Historical Society has complied with all the provisions of the acts of Assembly of eighteen hundred and eighty-two, chapter one hundred and thirty-eight, and eighteen hundred and eighty-four, chapter four hundred and twenty-nine, relating to the preservation, arrangement and publication of the archives and ancient documents pertaining to the history of the State of Maryland, and has, under said acts, published three volumes of the same, and made considerable progress in the preparation for publication of the fourth volume; and Preamble.

WHEREAS it is proper that the publication of said archives be continued, with reasonable diligence and care, under the direction of said society; therefore,

Preamble.