

Log.           mander of the force, and shall keep a log of their movements, and shall once in each month forward a copy of such log to the office of the Commander; any violation of duty in these respects shall be deemed a sufficient cause for removal, and they shall be so removed.

To visit the Tributaries.

SEC. 41. And be it enacted, That the said State Fishery Force shall have charge and control of the enforcement of all laws of this State, relating to fish, whether general or local; and the several Deputy Commanders of sloops and vessels shall be required to visit the tributaries and streams of their respective districts at least once in two weeks, between the first day of May and the first day of October, and at any other time when notified by citizens or others of violations, and they shall arrest and bring to trial all persons found violating any acts of Assembly, and cause them to be tried and punished, as provided by law.

Duties of the Commanders.

SEC. 42. And be it enacted, That the Commander of said force shall have the control and direction of said force, under the supervision of the Board of Public Works, with power to direct their movements, and shall have an office in the city of Annapolis, to which place all complaints, applications for assistance and reports from Deputy Commanders shall be addressed, and shall be permitted to have one clerk at a salary of six hundred dollars per year.

Violations before this act.

SEC. 43. And be it enacted, That nothing contained in this act shall be construed to affect any prosecution for violations of the existing law in this State, or for offences against the same, committed before the passage of this act.

SEC. 44. And be it enacted, That the owner or owners of any land bordering on any of the navigable waters of this State, the lines of which extend into and are covered by said waters, shall have the exclusive privilege of using