CHAPTER 38.

AN ACT to constitute St. Mark's Church at Kingston, in Somerset county, Maryland, the Parish Church of Coventry Parish, in Somerset county, Maryland.

WHEREAS the Protestant Episcopal Church building at Rehoboth in Somerset county, Maryland, which is now the Parish Church of Coventry Parish, has fallen into decay and is no longer regularly occupied for divine worship; and whereas great inconvenience is experienced in securing proper attendance at said church for the selection of vestries and other parish purposes by reason of its remoteness from the church population of the parish; therefore,

Preamble.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act St. Mark's Church at Kingston, in Somerset county, be and it is hereby constituted the Parish Church of Coventry Parish aforesaid, instead of the original parish church at Rehoboth.

Change of name.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Effective.

Approved March 18, 1886.
