

the said Treasurer and Clerk shall perform all the duties of his said office and do or have done all the clerical work of said County Commissioners office, and shall receive as compensation therefor the sum of one thousand dollars per annum, the same to be annually levied to his use by the said County Commissioners; and upon the failure, neglect, or refusal of the Treasurer to perform any or all the duties herein set forth as Treasurer and Clerk to the said County Commissioners, the said Commissioners or a majority of them shall notify him in writing of his failure or neglect to perform said duty or duties, and if he continues to neglect or refuse to perform them ten days after receiving said notice, the said County Commissioners shall remove the said Treasurer from office, and immediately appoint some other person to fill the vacancy for the residue of the term; provided, that nothing in this act shall be construed to impair or invalidate the bond of the present Treasurer, or to repeal, impair or conflict with the provisions of the General Public Laws relating to embezzlement; and the Commissioners shall appoint, at the expiration of the term of office of a Treasurer, or if removed, at the time of removal, a judicious and expert accountant to carefully examine the vouchers, books, papers, and funds under the charge of said Treasurer (in his presence if he so elects), who shall report thereof to said Commissioners, and such report, if received by them shall be engrossed on the record of proceedings of said Commissioners.

Salary.

Accountant.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That at their first meeting in December, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, or as soon thereafter as practicable, the County Commissioners shall appoint a Treasurer, whose term of office shall commence on the first day in January, eighteen hundred and eighty-eight, and every two years thereafter, at their first meeting in December or as soon thereafter as practicable, the County Commissioners shall appoint a Treasurer for a term of two years, or until his successor shall Treasurer.