

County Commissioners pay any interest to any holder of such bond or bonds accruing after its maturity.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage. Effective.

Approved April 7, 1886.

CHAPTER 368.

AN ACT to add section fifty-one A, to follow section fifty-one, of article twenty-four, of the Code of Public General Laws, in relation to releases of bills of sale and retransfers of the property mentioned therein, by the vendees to the vendors.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a new section, fifty-one A, be added, to follow section fifty-one of article twenty-four, of the Code of Public General Laws, to read as follows: Additional section added.

SECTION 51 A. That in all cases, heretofore or hereafter, where bills of sale are taken on personal property, which, according to the true intent of the parties thereto, are chattle mortgages, upon the payment or discharges of the debts named in said bills of sale by the vendors, it shall be the duty of the vendee therein named to release said bills of sale or retransfer the property mentioned therein to the vendors, which release or retransfer may be made upon the original bills of sale, which may be returned to the Record Office, and said release or retransfer entered upon the record book, when the bill of sale is recorded, at the end of the record thereof, or the said release or retransfer may be made in the presence of the Clerk, with his attestation thereto, in the record book in which the bill of sale is recorded, at the end of the record thereof. Release of bills of sale.

Approved April 7, 1886.