

Selling under misrepresentation.

Contrary to instructions.

tached to the Naval Academy at Annapolis, or under orders to join or leave the said Academy; nor to any student of St. John's College, without the written order of some professor of said college; and any person, corporation or association violating the provisions of this section shall be liable to indictment in the Circuit Court for Anne Arundel county, and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined a sum not less than fifty dollars and not more than four hundred dollars, or be confined in jail for a period not longer than six months, or be both fined and imprisoned in the discretion of the court, and shall be confined in jail until the said fine and cost of prosecution shall be paid; but if any minor or person referred to in this section shall willfully represent that he is of full age, and that he is not prohibited by this section, and thereby shall obtain any spirituous liquors, and the person selling the same, shall be able to prove such misrepresentation, the said person selling to the said minor or other person so falsely representing himself shall not suffer any penalty, but shall pay all costs incurred in such case; provided, that, the act of any agent under this section shall not be binding upon his principal, if the court or jury shall believe that the said act was committed against the bona fide instructions of said principal; and the same is hereby declared to be in full force, from the date of the proclamation hereinbefore provided for, declaring the Local Option Law repealed as to said city.

To re-enact.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That section fifty-eight of article second, of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Anne Arundel county," subtitle "Annapolis," as the same was amended and re-enacted by the acts of eighteen hundred and sixty-five, chapter eighty-seven, be and the same is hereby revived and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

SEC. 58. "Any one order which may be given to any minor, under the provisions of the