

thereon, be receivable for the party to whom due or his assignee in writing, in payment of county taxes due by the lawful holder thereof.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the several Supervisors shall make a summary statement, quarterly, commencing the first day of May in each and every year, to the County Commissioners, of the state of the roads within their districts and the expenses by them incurred under this law; the amount of money paid out by them in constructing and repairing roads, and to whom paid, with the vouchers for the same, certified to by affidavit of the Supervisor, the blanks to be furnished by the County Commissioners; that, each Supervisor shall be entitled to receive a sum not to exceed two dollars per day for each day he is actually employed on the roads for the said County Commissioners, and shall be wholly exempt during his term of office from militia duty and from service on juries.

Quarterly
Statement.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That in addition to the proper proportion of the general road tax levied for ordinary expenses of roads and bridges within the county, the County Commissioners shall have power, in their discretion, upon the petition of thirty or more land owners within any road district, to levy upon the assessable property within such road district an additional special tax of not more than ten cents on the hundred dollars, to be collected as other county taxes, and to be expended under the direction of the County Commissioners in the improvement of the roads within said district.

Special tax.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That every Supervisor shall be liable, in an action on his bond in the name of the State, for any damage resulting from any dereliction in the performance of his duties as prescribed by this law, or he shall be liable to indictment in the Circuit Court of said county and may be fined, at the

Liable for damages.