

in this act shall be construed or held to authorize any Justice of the Peace to have jurisdiction in any case where the title to land is involved.

How to vote.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That on the day for holding the election in November, eighteen hundred and eighty-six, the Judges of Election in the above named Dames' Quarter District, shall receive tickets, written or printed, from the legal voters of said district, on which shall be written, or printed, "For Fence," or, "Against Fence," and shall deposit them in a separate box provided for the purpose, and the said tickets shall be counted and returned as other ballots are, and the result of said count shall be returned to the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Somerset county, whose duty it shall be to proclaim the result by publication in at least one newspaper in said county, within ten day after the returns shall have been received by him; and the Sheriff shall give notice of their election as in cases of other elections; and the said election shall be in all respects subject to and governed by the election laws of this State so far as they are applicable thereto; and if at said election a majority of the votes cast at the said election in the said district shall be cast for fence, then the provisions of this act shall continue in force in the said Dames' Quarter Election District, and if a majority of the votes cast shall be "Against Fence" in said district, the provisions of this act shall not apply to the said district, but shall be absolutely void and of no effect.

Elections.

Effective.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 7, 1886.