

duly elected and qualified ; they shall receive no pay for their services, except the President, who shall receive the fees hereinafter allowed; and in case of vacancies by reason of death, refusal to act, disqualification, resignation or removal of any of said Commissioners out of the coporation limits, the Commissioners, or a majority of them, for the time being, shall elect Commissioners to fill said vacancies for the unexpired term, who shall serve until their successors are elected and qualified.

Elections.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall, annually, on or before the first Monday in April, appoint three Judges of Election, who shall appoint one Clerk; and the said Judges shall conduct the election according to the Election Laws of this State, except that the polls shall be opened at twelve o'clock, noon, and closed at six o'clock in the afternoon; and the Judges and the Clerk shall make their returns to the Commissioners, but shall receive no compensation for their services; the first election shall be held before Harrison S. Bowen, Frank A. Aman and Seth A. Holton, or a majority of them, who are hereby appointed Judges for that purpose, and who shall give certificates to the qualified persons receiving the highest number of votes.

Treasurer.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That on the same day on which the Commissioners are to be elected under this act, and on every first Monday in May, in each and every second year thereafter, one person, a legal voter in said town, and owner of real estate of the value of at least one thousand dollars, may be chosen by the voters of said town as Treasurer of said corporation, to serve for two years and until his successor shall qualify; but before said Treasurer shall enter upon his duties of this office, he shall give bond, payable to said Commissioners, in such penalty as they may fix, with securities to be approved by them, conditioned as they may direct; and the said Treasurer shall qualify and enter upon the duties of his
