

the first day of January and the tenth day of September in each and every year; nor shall any person willfully or maliciously trap any partridge, or destroy or molest the eggs of said birds, at any time in said county.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That any person who shall be convicted before a Justice of the Peace of said county of violating the preceding section, shall pay a fine of ten dollars for each and every partridge, woodcock, rabbit, rail-bird or summer duck shot, or in any manner caught, killed or found in their possession, or for any partridge trapped, or for any partridge eggs or nests willfully or maliciously molested or destroyed contrary to the preceding section, and in default of payment of fine or fines imposed hereunder, together with the costs, the offender shall be committed to Jail for not less than five nor more than thirty days for each offense; and the non-payment of each and every fine shall be considered a separate offense within the meaning of the preceding sections of this act.

Penalty for violation.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall not be lawful for any person not a bona fide resident of said county to shoot or trap any partridge, quail, woodcock, rail-birds, summer ducks, rabbits or any other wild game mentioned in the preceding sections of this act within the limits of Talbot county, without first having obtained from the Clerk of the Circuit Court for said county a license, permitting the person named in such license to shoot wild game in said county for one year from the day on which said license is issued; and that the person named therein, or the person procuring such license, shall pay to said Clerk for such license the sum of nine dollars and a half, and fifty cents to the Clerk for his fee for issuing such license; and any non-resident convicted before a Justice of the Peace of said county of gunning within the limits of

Cost of license.