

the warrant of the Comptroller, the amount or amounts of any such differences to the person or persons entitled to receive the same; and any such differences payable to the State shall be received by the said Treasurer, upon the warrant of the Comptroller, into the Treasury of this State.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That if any of the bonds or certificates of indebtedness referred to in the preamble of this act as now due shall not be exchanged on or before the first day of July, in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-six, for certificates of indebtedness issued under this act, the Governor, Comptroller and Treasurer of this State, or a majority of them, shall give notice by advertisement at such time or times as they, or a majority of them, may elect, and in such manner and for such period or periods as they or a majority of them may prescribe; that they will receive proposals for the purchase, for cash, of so many of such bonds, equal in face value to the amount of said bonds referred to in the preamble of this act as due and payable as may not have been exchanged under the provisions of this act, at prices not less than the par of the said bonds and the interest accruing thereon; all coupons on said certificates of indebtedness issued under the provisions of this act which shall have matured, or will mature before the time of such proposed sale, shall be cut from said certificates of indebtedness; if any of said certificates of indebtedness so offered for sale are registered, the time from which interest shall begin to run thereon shall be endorsed on such certificates of indebtedness before they are delivered to the purchaser thereof; proposals for said certificates of indebtedness on any of them shall be advertised at least twice a week for four weeks before the time fixed for opening such proposals, and shall be so advertised at the expense of the State in two newspapers published in the city of Baltimore and in the

Give notice.