

SEC. 4. Any person or persons who shall neglect or refuse to comply with any of the provisions of this act, and every person or persons who shall render illegible, concealed or hide in any manner the inscription to be stamped, branded or stenciled as hereinbefore provided, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be imprisoned in the Jail of the city or county in which such illegal act was done, not less than ten nor more than sixty days, in the discretion of the Court, and shall be fined one hundred dollars for the first offense, and shall be imprisoned as aforesaid not less than ninety days nor more than one year, and be fined two hundred and fifty dollars for the second offense, one-half of the fine imposed upon any case to go to the informer; and on the trial of any one for violating the provisions of this act, proof of the sale, or offer to sell, or exposure for sale of any of the articles mentioned in the previous portions of this act, shall be presumptive evidence of knowledge of the character of the article so sold, or offered, or exposed.

Penalty.

SEC. 5. Be it enacted, That all oleomargarine sold by the pound, piece, or parcel in the public markets of the city of Baltimore, or in any county of this State, shall be in conformity with section one of this act, and any person selling, or offering, or exposing oleomargarine for sale, not in accordance with section one, shall forfeit the same, and it shall be seized and taken by the Clerk of the respective markets of the city of Baltimore, or the Constables of any county, and sold for the use of the public school fund in the city or county where such seizure was made.

Seizure.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Effective.

Approved April 7, 1886.