

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

CHAPTER 456.

AN ACT to repeal chapter two hundred and ninety-nine of the acts of the General Assembly of Maryland passed at the session of eighteen hundred and eighty-four, entitled an act authorizing the Governor to appoint General Measurers of Oysters for the State of Maryland, and to re-enact the same with amendments.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Governor, at each session of the General Assembly, shall appoint for the city of Baltimore five persons, and one for each of all the other ports or towns of this State bordering on the Chesapeake bay or any of the tributaries thereto, to be known as the "General Measurer of Oysters" for the city, town or port for which he shall be appointed, and all of whom shall give bond to the State of Maryland in the sum of three thousand dollars for the faithful performance of his duties.

General Measurers of oysters.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the General Measurers of Oysters thus appointed shall have the same power over oysters sold in the waters adjacent to the port for which he shall have been appointed as are hereinafter given to said General Measurer of Oysters over such port.

Have power.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the city of Baltimore shall be divided into five districts as follows: Number One, extending from Locust Point to the intersection of Light and Lee streets; Number Two, from the intersection of Light and Lee streets to Long Dock; Number Three, from Long Dock to the foot of Thames street; Number Four, from the foot of Thames street to the intersection of Boston and Alice Ann streets; Number Five, from the intersection of Boston and Alice Ann streets to the southeastern extremity of the Districts.