

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the General Measurers of Oysters shall receive a compensation for the faithful performance of their duties, of ten cents per hundred bushels, to be paid by the seller and collected from the seller by the buyer to be paid to the General Measurer of Oysters; and any seller who shall refuse to pay such compensation, and any buyer who shall refuse to collect and pay over any such compensation to the said General Oyster Measurers, as well as all other person or persons who shall violate any of the provisions of this act, or interfere with any of the General Measurers of Oysters in the discharge of his duty, upon conviction by any Justice of the Peace of this State pay a fine of twenty dollars and costs, one-half of said fine to be paid to the informer; and in default of which such person or persons be confined in Jail until the same be paid; provided, however, that no person be confined for the non-payment of said fine and costs longer than twenty days.

Compensation.

Penalty for violation.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the General Measurers of Oysters appointed at the present session of the General Assembly shall be the General Measurers of Oysters provided for in this act, to serve for the time for which they have been appointed.

General measurer to serve.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Effective.

Approved April 7, 1886.