

CHAPTER 467.

AN ACT to amend the act of November session seventeen hundred and ninety-nine, chapter forty-four, entitled an act to incorporate a society for the maintenance and education of poor female children, by the name of the Benevolent Society for the city and county of Baltimore.

WHEREAS the Associate Rectors of Saint Paul's Parish, in the city and county of Baltimore, and their successors and the subscribers and contributors to the society, incorporated by the act of November session seventeen hundred and ninety-nine, chapter forty-four, were incorporated by said act under the name of the Benevolent Society for the city and county of Baltimore, for the purposes in said act mentioned; and Preamble.

WHEREAS the pecuniary condition of the said corporation so formed is such that there is no longer occasion that the said corporation should rely upon subscribers and contributors to obtain the means necessary to carry into effect the purposes of said society; and

Preamble.

WHEREAS the number of said subscribers and contributors has for this reason become so limited that it is necessary and proper to provide other means for the government of said society, and for the performance of the duties devolved upon it by said act; therefore,

Preamble.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Vestry of Saint Paul's Parish, in Baltimore county, hereinbefore referred to, shall have power to appoint upon such a day as it may designate in each and every year, from among the parishioners of said Saint Paul's Parish, eight Trustees, who shall, together with the Rector for the time being, of said Parish, constitute a Board

Board of trustees.
