

said, and the said officer, with the persons furnishing information as aforesaid, and aiding and assisting in the arrest, as aforesaid, shall sell the same to the highest bidder for cash after ten days' notice.

Appeal.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That if the person or persons so convicted shall think him or themselves aggrieved by such conviction, he or they shall be at liberty to appeal from the judgment of the Justice of the Peace within ten days from the rendition thereof to the Circuit Court of Queen Anne's county; provided, he or they shall give bond to the State of Maryland, with two sufficient sureties, to be approved by said Justice, in double the amount of the value of the boat, vessel, canoe, tug, launch, float or other craft, and property so seized, and fines imposed to be estimated by the Justice, conditioned to prosecute his appeal to the said Circuit Court with effect; and it shall be the duty of the Justice allowing the appeal immediately to deliver the bond to the party making the arrest; and in case of forfeiting of the conditions of the bond the said officers may prosecute the same for the use of himself and those giving information or aiding him in the arrest as aforesaid.

Resisting.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, If resistance be made to the officers engaged in making such arrest or seizure, such resistance shall be deemed a misdemeanor presentable by the Grand Jury of Queen Anne's county, and punishable in the Circuit Court by fine and imprisonment as other misdemeanors are punished.

posed of.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That after payment of the costs of prosecution of the offenders including Jail fees, in case of imprisonment for non-payment of fine, the balance arising from fine and sales of the boat, and other property, shall be divided and apportioned as follows: two-thirds thereof to the officer and
