

Assembly of Maryland, passed at the January session of eighteen hundred and eighty-two, entitled an act to repeal article seventy-six of the Code of Public General Laws, entitled "Public Printer," and to enact an article in lieu thereof, be and the same is hereby repealed.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That on or before the first day of October prior to the meeting of each and every session of the General Assembly of this State, it shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Court of Appeals, and he is hereby required to advertise for ten successive days in three daily newspapers published in the city of Baltimore, having as near as he can ascertain the largest circulation, and two weekly papers in Annapolis, that he will receive bids for the printing for the General Assembly at there next ensuing session; that the amount of printing so to be contracted for shall be four thousand copies of the Governor's message in English; five hundred copies of the Governor's message in German; three thousand reports of the Comptroller of the Treasury; one thousand reports of the State Treasurer; one thousand reports of the Adjutant-General; two thousand School reports; one thousand reports of the Insurance Commissioner; one thousand copies of the report of the State Tax Commissioner; two thousand reports of the Commissioner of the Land Office; and all of the aforesaid reports shall be printed and bound in paper; one thousand reports of the State Board of Health; one thousand reports of the Bureau of Labor Statistics; one thousand reports of the State Fish Commissioners; fifteen hundred copies of the Daily Journal of the Senate; fifteen hundred copies of the Daily Journal of the House of Delegates; two hundred each Senate Bills; two hundred each House Bills; two thousand Yeas and Nays for the House of Delegates; two thousand Yeas and Nays for the Senate; two hundred Rules and Orders for the use of the

To advertisic.

Amount of printing to be done.