

tion the polls shall be open for the reception of votes from eight o'clock, a. m., to eight o'clock, p. m., and no longer.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the managing convention of any such political association or party, shall appoint a Board of three persons to revise the selections of Judges and Clerks made by the ward delegations, as hereinafter provided for; the time of appointment, the term of service, and the filling of vacancies in said Board, to be determined by such convention; and all shall prescribe by resolution the qualifications of such Judges and Clerks; the delegation to such managing convention from each ward, shall select for each election to be held under the provisions of this act, three persons to act as Judges, one of whom shall be designated as Return Judge, and two persons to act as Clerks, having the qualifications prescribed as aforesaid, and shall fix the polling-place in said ward, which shall be as near the center of the ward as possible, and not in any house where intoxicating liquors are sold; each of said ward delegations shall return to said Board of Revision a list of the Judges and Clerks, and the polling-place selected by them, at least ten days before the election for which such selections are made; the list to remain in the rooms of the executive committee of such managing convention until the publication of the revised list by the President of the convention as hereinafter required; if any of the persons upon said lists have not the qualifications prescribed by this act, or upon complaint made in writing, specifying the reasons of objection, are decided by said Board to be improper persons for the performance of such duties, said Board shall notify the ward delegation of such objections and request them to name other persons in their stead, and if said ward delegations shall neglect or refuse to send in other names, then the said Board shall have power to appoint proper and duly qualified persons in their place and stead;

Revisory Board.

List of Judges.