

May appoint.

and said Board shall also have power to appoint Judges and Clerks and fix the polling-place for any ward whose delegation fails to send the list of Judges, Clerks and polling-place at the time hereinbefore required, and in no other case shall said Board have power to make any such appointments; the said Board shall furnish to the President of such managing convention a complete list of the Judges, Clerks and polling-places, which shall be published by said President under his hand, once in one or more papers published in said city at least three days before the election for which the selections are made; no person shall act as Judge or Clerk of any primary election held under this law, who shall have violated his party obligations, and no delegate to any city convention shall have a voice in selecting Judges or Clerks who have violated their party obligations, and the city convention of any party shall provide by resolution what shall be considered a violation of party obligations.

Disqualification.

Oath.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That every person selected as Judge or Clerk of Elections, shall make oath or affirm before some officer authorized to administer oaths in said city, that he will faithfully perform all the duties by him to be performed as Judge or Clerk, so as to secure to the best of his ability a fair election and a fair statement of the result of said election.

To complete number of Judges.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That if at the place appointed for holding any such election, and when ten minutes after the time fixed for beginning the same has expired, and any one or more of the Judges so selected shall fail to appear, or appearing have not qualified, the other Judges or Judge present and qualified shall appoint from among the friends of the candidate in whose interest said Judge or Judges were appointed, and who failed to appear, some other person or persons having the