

and owning a freehold estate or leasehold property for a term exceeding two years within the limits of said town, shall, on the first Wednesday in June, in each and every year, elect a Commissioner, who shall hold his office for five years in the place of the Commissioner whose term of office has expired.

SEC. 6. That all elections for Commissioners of said town shall be held at such place within the limits of said town as the Commissioners of the town shall designate and provide; and the Commissioners of said town, or a majority of them, shall be Judges of said election, and the proceedings thereof shall be recorded under their direction.

Polls.

SEC. 7. That every person elected a Commissioner shall, before he enters upon the duties of his office, make oath before a Justice of the Peace that he will diligently and faithfully, without favor, partiality or prejudice, perform the duties of a Commissioner of said town a certificate of such qualification shall be returned by the Justice to the Commissioners and be filed and recorded among their proceedings.

•
Oath.

SEC. 8. That every Commissioner, before he proceeds to act as Judge of Election, shall make oath that he will faithfully and impartially permit every person to vote at such election who shall be qualified to vote; and that he will not suffer any person to vote at such election who shall not, in his judgment, be qualified to vote under this act.

Judges of Election.

SEC. 9. That if any vacancy shall happen in the office of Commissioner by death, resignation, removal or otherwise, the remaining Commissioners at the next regular meeting, shall elect a Commissioner to serve until the next election, who shall take the same oath as other Commissioners, and at the next election the qualified voters shall elect a person to fill said vacancy.

Vacancies.