

taken as Judges of Election by two Justices of the Peace of Somerset county, to be appointed by the Commissioners of Crisfield, under reasonable regulations to be prescribed by said Commissioners, and in case the majority of the people in the territory named above, outside of the present limits of Crisfield shall vote for annexation, then the limits of said town shall be as above, but until a majority shall so vote the limits of said town shall be and remain as they now are, and as prescribed in the act of eighteen hundred and seventy-two, chapter one hundred and fifty-one, section twenty-two, and all male citizens of Somerset county above the age of twenty-one years residing or owning real estate in the territory proposed to be annexed, and no other, shall be entitled to vote at said election.

Proviso.

SEC. 45. That if land or property shall be condemned in the extension of limits of said town, or in opening new streets, lanes or alleys, or in widening, draining or extending existing streets, lanes or alleys, or for a market-house, or for any other uses or purpose of said town, and the owner or owners of said property cannot agree with the Commissioners as to the value thereof, or the owner or owners of said property are married women whose husbands will not convey jointly with them, or persons under twenty-one years of age, insane or lunatic, the value thereof shall be ascertained by a Jury of twelve disinterested men of the county having no assessable property within the limits of said town, and the said Commissioners shall issue their warrant to the Sheriff of said county to summon such Jury, and they shall meet at Crisfield, on a day to be fixed by the Sheriff, at which the owner or owners of the property to be condemned shall have notice, and having been sworn by the Sheriff without partiality or prejudice to value the property and damages sustained by the owner, by means of such condemnation, according to the best of their skill and judgment, shall

To open streets.