

George Fraser Hawkins (ca. 1741–1785); Alexander Thomas Hawkins; Philip Richard Fendall; (?–?); John Fendall; Benjamin Fendall; Henry Fendall; and Samuel Fendall. Her stepsisters were Ann Fraser Hawkins (1736–1738); Elizabeth Lawrence Hawkins; Susanna Fraser Hawkins, who married William Bayly (ca. 1742–1824); and Sarah Fendall (ca. 1732–1793), who married Thomas Contee (ca. 1729–1811). CHILDREN. SONS: Benjamin, who died in infancy; Levin Covington Mackall (1760–?); Benjamin (1763–1822), who married Christiana Beall; Leonard (1768–1843), who married Catherine Beall; Walter (?–ca. 1803), who married Rebecca Bailey, daughter of William Bayly (ca. 1742–1824); and Richard (?–1831), who married Frances Reynolds. DAUGHTERS: Barbara (ca. 1758–by 1795), who married Capt. Thomas Horrell; Rebecca Covington (ca. 1770–?), who married Gen. Leonard Covington. PRIVATE CAREER. EDUCATION: literate. RELIGIOUS AFFILIATION: Anglican. SOCIAL STATUS AND ACTIVITIES: Mr., by 1749; Gent., by 1768; Esq. by 1793. OCCUPATIONAL PROFILE: planter; merchant in 1759. PUBLIC CAREER. LEGISLATIVE SERVICE: Lower House, Calvert County, 1749–1751 (Bills of Credit 1; Arms and Ammunition 1), 1751–1754, 1754–1757 (Arms and Ammunition 4–6), 1757–1758 (Arms and Ammunition 1, Cv, 2), 1758–1761, 1762–1763 (Arms and Ammunition 1, 2), 1765–1766; 9th Convention, Calvert County, 1776. LOCAL OFFICES: Commissioner to plan new courthouse, Calvert County, 1749; justice, Calvert County, 1766, 1769, 1773 (quorum). WEALTH DURING LIFETIME. PERSONAL PROPERTY: assessed value £2,287.11.8, including 70 slaves and 140 oz. plate, 1783. House and outbuildings on home plantation were burned by the British, February 1783. Administered personal property devised to William Mackall Wilkinson (1751–1799) from 1757 until 1770. In 1771, Mackall paid Wilkinson's guardian ca. £200.0.0 sterling as Wilkinson's share of the estate of his father, William Wilkinson (?–1755). Wilkinson brought the case into Chancery Court in 1786, complaining that he was due a greater amount from Mackall. Although Mackall testified that he had paid a £300.0.0 sterling debt owed by Wilkinson's father and had maintained, clothed, and paid for the schooling of Wilkinson at ca. £20.0.0 sterling per year, Wilkinson was awarded £1,624.4.9 in 1793. LAND AT FIRST ELECTION: probably at least 2,214 acres in Kent and Calvert counties (2,000 acres in Kent County given to him by his parents in 1748, the rest probably by personal acquisition). SIGNIFICANT CHANGES

IN LAND BETWEEN FIRST ELECTION AND DEATH: patented 94 acres in Calvert County, 1754; acquired 500 acres in Prince George's County through his marriage to Rebecca, 1756. From 1757 until 1770, controlled 390 acres in Charles County devised to William Mackall Wilkinson (1751–1799) by his father William Wilkinson (?–1755). Sold 2,000 acres in Kent County and purchased 921 acres in Prince George's County in 1759. By 1761 had sold 94 acres and acquired 107 acres, all in Calvert County. Inherited 2,099 acres in Calvert County from his father in 1761 and 321 acres in Calvert County from his mother in 1764. By 1767 he had divested himself of 149 acres in Calvert County, and in 1768 he sold, with Rebecca, her 500 acres in Prince George's County. By 1771 he had sold 396 acres in Calvert County; purchased 381 acres in Calvert County in 1772; sold ca. 46 acres in Calvert County by 1774. In 1783, Mackall was charged with 2,003 acres in Calvert County, having given at least 346 acres to his son Benjamin and 419 acres to his son Levin Covington Mackall (1760–?) before that date; gave 382 acres to his son Leonard a few months before his death in 1795. WEALTH AT DEATH. DIED: in April 1795 in Calvert County. LAND: probably ca. 1,621 acres in Calvert County and ca. 930 acres in Prince George's County, although he may have given some or all of this land to his sons before his death.

MACKALL, BENJAMIN IV (1745–by 1810). BORN: on August 14, 1745, in Christ Church Parish, Calvert County; second son. NATIVE: fourth generation. RESIDED: in Calvert County; in Annapolis, Anne Arundel County, from at least 1769 until at least 1771; at "Godsgrace," Calvert County, by 1786–death. FAMILY BACKGROUND. FATHER: James John Mackall (1717–1772), son of John Mackall (1669–1739). MOTHER: Mary, daughter of Benjamin Hance (1684–1738) of Calvert County. UNCLE: Samuel Hance (?–?). BROTHERS: John Mackall (1740–1799); James (1747–ca. 1837); Richard (1749–by 1772); and Thomas Mackall (1751–1799). SISTERS: Susannah (ca. 1737–by 1782), who married Thomas Gantt, Jr. (?–1808); Mary (1742–?), who married Edward Reynolds (?–by 1820); Elizabeth (ca. 1743–?); Sarah (1752–?); Ann (ca. 1753–?); Margaret (1755–1799); Barbara (1755–?); and Priscilla (1758–1823), who married Robert Bowie (ca. 1750–1818). MARRIED on November 20, 1769, in Annapolis, Rebecca (?–by 1810), daughter of William Potts (1718–1761) of Barbadoes and wife Sarah Lee, daughter