¹ Upon petition of the freeholders of St. Mary's County, Key's election was declared invalid and he was dismissed on October 12, 1757. A new election was called, and Key was returned, requalifying on November 19, 1757.

² The petition of Henry Woodward, complaining of the illegal election of Steuart as a delegate from Annapolis, was upheld. On October 1, 1757, the Lower House ordered Steuart's name erased from the election return and Woodward's name inserted in its place.

⁴ This committee was established as a "Committee to inspect into the several Public Offices, and Report to the House the State and Condition thereof."
