

ried by 1739/40 Daniel Russell; Elizabeth; and Demaris. MARRIED on April 17, 1723, Rachel (1708–ca. 1749), daughter of John Hammond (1665–1742/43) and wife Anne Greenberry (1676–1723). Rachel was the granddaughter of John Hammond (1643–1707) and Nicholas Greenberry (1627–1697). She was the niece of Charles Hammond (ca. 1670–1713); Thomas Hammond (?–ca. 1724/25); Charles Greenberry (1672–1713); and Elizabeth Greenberry (1678–1719/20), who married Robert Goldsborough (1660–1746). Her brothers were Thomas John (1697–1767); Nicholas (1703/4–1743). Her sisters were Elizabeth; Anne (1697–1708); and Comfort (1701–?). Her first cousins were Philip Hammond (1697–1760); Ruth Hammond, who married second, Thomas Franklin (ca. 1706–1787); Charles Hammond (1692/93–1772); Thomas Hammond (1693–?); Elizabeth Ridgely (?–1734), who married Thomas Worthington (ca. 1691–1752/53); Charles Goldsborough (1707–1767); William Goldsborough (1709–1760); and John Goldsborough (1711–1778). Her nephew was probably Samuel Worthington (1734–1815). Rachel Hammond Moale married second, by 1742, George Bailey. CHILDREN. SONS: John Moale (ca. 1731–1798); Richard (1739/40–1786), of Baltimore Town, an early and enthusiastic convert to Methodism, who married Frances Hatton Chase, sister of Jeremiah Townly Chase (1748–1828). DAUGHTERS: Rebecca (ca. 1728–1786), who married in 1746 Charles Croxall (1724–1782); Rachel (1737–ca. 1741). PRIVATE CAREER. EDUCATION: literate. RELIGIOUS AFFILIATION: Anglican. SOCIAL STATUS AND ACTIVITIES: Mr., by 1730. OCCUPATIONAL PROFILE: a merchant with a store in Baltimore Town and a half interest in three sloops at the time of his death; also maintained a plantation. PUBLIC CAREER. LEGISLATIVE SERVICE: Lower House, Baltimore County, 1734/35–1737 (Bills of Credit 1, Cv, 2–4), 1738 (Aggrievances; Bills of Credit), 1739–40 (Aggrievances, Cv, 1; Bills of Credit Cv, 1; died during the 1st session of 1739–1741 Assembly). LOCAL OFFICE: St. Paul's Parish Vestry, Baltimore County, 1730–1733. STANDS ON PUBLIC/PRIVATE ISSUES: credited with defeating the General Assembly bill that would have located Baltimore Town on the north side of the middle branch of the Patapsco River. The site originally petitioned for as the town was on his property, which he believed was rich in iron ore. Moale apparently felt the land would be more advantageous to him as a mining site than as a town. WEALTH DURING LIFETIME. LAND AT FIRST ELECTION: 725 acres in Baltimore County

(400 acres acquired by patent, 325 acres by purchase). SIGNIFICANT CHANGES IN LAND BETWEEN FIRST ELECTION AND DEATH: resurveyed and patented a previously purchased tract for a net gain of 79 acres, 1735; patented two small tracts of 6 and 3 acres, Baltimore County, 1735 and 1736; patented 81 acres and surveyed an additional 257 acres, all in Baltimore County, 1737; purchased 54 acres, Baltimore County, 1737. WEALTH AT DEATH.
