

1794, and who possibly married on December 13, 1793, Ann Beichtel; John; Jacob, a doctor and the sheriff of Washington County, 1802–1804; and David, who served in the Lower House from Washington County, 1806–1807. DAUGHTER: Elizabeth (?–by 1805), who married Jacob Barnett. PRIVATE CAREER. EDUCATION: literate. RELIGIOUS AFFILIATION: German Reformed; an elder of the Trustees of Tychers Church located east of Conogocheague Creek. SOCIAL STATUS AND ACTIVITIES: Gent., by 1782. OCCUPATIONAL PROFILE: doctor; planter. PUBLIC CAREER. LEGISLATIVE SERVICE: 9th Convention, Frederick County, Upper District, 1776; Lower House, Washington County, 1777, 1777–1778, 1778–1779 (Grievances 3), 1785 (elected, but did not attend). LOCAL OFFICES: Committee of Observation, Frederick County, elected 1775; appointed to promote military subscriptions from Salisbury Hundred, Frederick County, 1775; justice, Washington County, appointed 1777–1782; justice, Orphans' Court, Washington County, commissioned 1777–1782; commissioner of the tax, Washington County, appointed 1779; Maryland Senate elector, elected 1786, 1791, 1801; trustee of the poor of Washington County, 1799. MILITARY SERVICE: medical purveyor for the army, Washington County, 1780. WEALTH DURING LIFETIME. PERSONAL PROPERTY: assessed value £178.5.0, including 3 slaves and 3 oz. plate, 1783; assessed value £302.13.4, including 8 slaves and 16 oz. plate, 1803–1804. LAND AT FIRST ELECTION: 2,226 acres in Frederick (later became Washington) County, plus 1 lot (and possibly as many as 3 lots) in Elizabeth Town, Frederick (later became Washington) County. SIGNIFICANT CHANGES IN LAND BETWEEN FIRST ELECTION AND DEATH: purchased more than 1,148 acres in Washington County and nearby Pennsylvania, 1778–1799; leased 2 lots in Williamsport, Washington County, for 95 years, 1797; patented 2,294 acres in seven separate tracts, Washington County, 1789–1801. Three of the seven patented tracts included resurveys on more than 1,865 acres of previously purchased and patented land; sold 686 acres in Washington County, 1779–1801, plus 2 lots in Elizabeth Town, 1779–1790; deeded as a gift to his son 120 acres in Washington County, plus a lot in Elizabeth Town, 1788; owned a house in Washington, D.C., 1798. WEALTH AT DEATH. DIED: on July 24, 1805; will probated in Washington County. PERSONAL PROPERTY: TEV, £2,473.6.8 current money (including 11 slaves, plate, and 1 book); FB, £34.18.2. LAND: his will mentions 2,385 acres, plus unspecified acreage, in Washington County; 530 acres in Pennsylvania; 2,872 acres in Kentucky; and 1 lot in Washington, D.C.

SCOTT, ANDREW (?–?). BORN: of age by 1770. NATIVE: at least second generation. RESIDED: in Frederick County; may have had an alternate residence in Annapolis in 1771. FAMILY BACKGROUND. FATHER: George Scott (?–1771), Esq., resided in Anne Arundel County until ca. 1754, then Prince George's and Frederick counties; a farmer of the quit rents for Frederick County, deputy commissary of Prince George's County, and sheriff of Frederick County in 1764; a tailor/merchant. MOTHER: Elizabeth, daughter of Margaret Dick (?–1756). BROTHERS: George Scott (1736–1809); John (by 1749–?). SISTERS: Margaret (by 1749–?); Ann; Isabella; Arianna; and Elizabeth (by 1749–?). PRIVATE CAREER. EDUCATION: literate. RELIGIOUS AFFILIATION: Protestant. OCCUPATIONAL PROFILE: attorney, admitted to the following courts: Frederick County, March 1770; Prince George's County, August 1771; Provincial Court, April 1772. PUBLIC CAREER. LEGISLATIVE SERVICE: 1st Convention, Frederick County, 1774. LOCAL OFFICE: Committee of Correspondence, Frederick County, elected 1774. WEALTH DURING LIFETIME. PERSONAL PROPERTY: 17 slaves in 1771; inherited personal property from his father in 1771, which he mortgaged to his brother George in 1775 and later lost through forfeiture. LAND AT FIRST ELECTION: 3,859 acres in Frederick County, which he mortgaged to his brother George in 1775, and probably 1 lot in the addition to George Town, Frederick County (he may have inherited all of the acreage from his father). SIGNIFICANT CHANGES IN LAND BETWEEN FIRST ELECTION AND DEATH: lost all of his 3,859 acres in 1786 through mortgage foreclosure. WEALTH AT DEATH. DIED: alive in 1786. PERSONAL PROPERTY: size of estate unknown. LAND: possibly 1 lot in the addition to Georgetown.

SCOTT, AQUILA (1756–?). BORN: in 1756 in Baltimore (later became Harford) County; probably youngest son. NATIVE: at least fourth generation. RESIDED: in St. John's Parish, Bush River Lower Hundred, Harford County; probably moved to Georgia ca. 1791. FAMILY BACKGROUND. FATHER: James Scott (1720–1762), son of Daniel Scott (ca. 1680–1744/45). MOTHER: Ann (ca. 1726–ca. 1783). BROTHERS: Daniel (1744–by 1781); James; and Benjamin (?–1782). SISTERS: Martha (ca. 1759–by 1781); Ann (ca. 1762–by 1782); and Eliza-