EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

November 25, 1784–November 17, 1785

Charles Wallace Aquila Paca John Davidson
John Hoskins Stone Samuel Turbutt Wright

¹ Smith was elected president on January 13, 1785, to replace Plater who had a leave of absence.

² Graves was declared ineligible for election after a report was delivered that indicated he had not resigned his commission as a field officer until after the election. He was discharged on November 24, was reelected, and again qualified on December 11, 1784.
