

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF 1785

William Smallwood, governor

November 7, 1785–March 12, 1786

SENATE

WESTERN SHORE
George Plater, president <sup>1</sup>
Thomas Stone
Charles Carroll of Carrollton

John Smith
James McHenry (DNS, R)
Daniel Carroll, president <sup>1</sup>
Richard Barnes
Benedict Edward Hall

Samuel Hughes
Daniel Bowley (E)
EASTERN SHORE
John Henry
William Hindman (DNS)

Edward Lloyd
William Perry
George Gale
James Lloyd

HOUSE OF DELEGATES

ST MARY'S
Philip Key
Thomas Bond
William Somerville
John DeButts
KENT
Peregrine Lethrbury
Robert Maxwell
Richard Graves
James Pearce
ANNE ARUNDEL
Brice T. B. Worthington
Nicholas Worthington
John Hall
Nicholas (Maccubbin)
Carroll
CALVERT
John Grahame
Michael Taney
Thomas Gantt, Jr.
Alexander Frazier
CHARLES
John Courts Jones
Zephaniah Turner
George Dent, Jr.

John Hoskins Stone
BALTIMORE
Thomas Cockey Deye,
speaker
Charles Ridgely, of William
John Stevenson
Charles Ridgely
TALBOT
John Roberts
Pollard Edmondson
Howes Goldsborough
John Bracco
SOMERSET
John Gale
John Dashiell
Richard Waters, Jr.
William Adams
DORCHESTER
Henry Waggaman
William Ennalls Hooper
Levin Kirkman
Henry Ennalls
CECIL
Jeremiah Baker
John Oglivie

Samuel Miller
Nathaniel Ramsay
ANNAPOLIS
Allen Quynn
Samuel Chase
PRINCE GEORGE'S
Walter Bowie
Fielder Bowie
Robert Bowie
George Digges
QUEEN ANNE'S
Clement Sewell
John Seney
Joshua Seney
George Jackson
WORCESTER
John Pope Mitchell
William Purnell
Joseph Dashiell
Peter Chaille
FREDERICK
Abraham Faw
John D. Cary
John Beatty
Mountjoy Bayly

HARFORD
Benjamin Bradford Norris
John Love
James Bond
Ignatius Wheeler, Jr.
CAROLINE
Thomas Hughlett
William Whitely
Matthew Driver
Henry Downes
BALTIMORE TOWN
John Sterett
David McMechen
WASHINGTON
John Stull
John Cellars
Jacob Funk
Henry Schnebeley (DNS)
MONTGOMERY
Thomas Sprigg Wooton
Thomas Beall, of George
Laurence O'Neale
Thomas Cramphin

Committee Service

ELECTIONS AND PRIVILEGES
N. Worthington
B. Worthington
John Seney
Quynn
Ramsay
GRIEVANCES AND COURTS OF JUSTICE
N. Carroll

Joseph Dashiell
Bracco
Ridgely, of William
S. Chase
B. Worthington
McMechen
CLAIMS
Turner
Beall

Sewell
Digges
Ramsay
Faw
Sterett
Goldsborough
Ridgely, of William
Grahame
LAWS TO EXPIRE
N. Worthington

Quynn
S. Chase
MANUFACTORIES
Joseph Dashiell
DeButts
Bracco
B. Worthington
Taney

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL <sup>2</sup>

November 18, 1785–November 30, 1786

Jeremiah Townly Chase    James Brice    Gabriel Duvall (R)
John Kilty    Samuel Turbutt Wright    William Paca (E, R)

<sup>1</sup> Carroll was elected president on January 18, 1786, to replace Plater, who had a leave of absence.

<sup>2</sup> Duvall resigned from the Executive Council on April 20, 1786, because of his opinion that the "late Act to vest certain Powers in the Governor and Council, is repugnant to the Constitution and Form of Government of this State. . . ." William Paca, who was elected on April 27 to replace Duvall, resigned on November 4, 1786, in order to take his seat in the House on November 6, 1786.