

1 THE CHAIRMAN: No.

2 MR. CASE: I am sorry and I apologize.

3 THE CHAIRMAN: He didn't mention Professors.
4 He said interested groups to submit suggestions to the 5 Committee but merely in the way of suggestion to the 6 Committee.

7 MR. CASE: Of people around the state.

8 THE CHAIRMAN: That is right.

9 MR. CASE: Why do we have to go to people
10 around the state when we have what I am talking about 11 right here?

12 THE CHAIRMAN: The suggestion might be to 13 embody that language or not.

14 DR. BARD: I have been going through this
15 and I do think that there are some portions of the 16 Declaration of Rights which are historic and significant
17 both. I think by way of illustration the point about
18 Article 6 was a good point, excellent.

19 On the other hand, there are other portions
20 of the Declaration of Rights where the language is not 21 necessarily historical and it seems to me here the
