

1 Committee has done an excellent job in correlating
2 some of these portions.

3 I do think as I have looked over this
4 that it is possible to fuse those elements that are
5 historic and have tradition and I think give a unique
6 tone to the Maryland Constitution.

7 I am with Mr. Case, we don't want to lose this.
8 I remember we stated earlier, I voiced this concept at 9 the very first meeting. I don't see it as a confrontation.
10 I myself believe it is possible to fuse some of the 11 articles that have been left out, put them back, at 12 least the language, and at the same time to capture
13 through some generalized statement in a preface the 14 thing that we are talking about.

15 Some of these statements I would not put back.

16 MR. CASE: I agree.

17 DR. BARD: They are confusing, do not add
18 to our tradition.

19 THE CHAIRMAN: In order to move forward, I
20 suggest we go back row and pick up each section, taking 21 first for consideration and discussion the section as
