

1 MR. CASE: That is what I want to know.

2 THE CHAIRMAN: Are you going to ask Dr.
3 Michener?

4 DR. MICHENER: Shall I go into all that
5 now?

6 MR. SCANLAN: Just one sentence.

7 MR. MILLER: Yes or no.

8 DR. MICHENER: I think the compact theory
9 is not accepted now.

10 MR. SCANLAN: What is?

11 DR. MICHENER: You go into all the
12 theory of why people obey. It is not a compact theory.

13 MR. CASE: Let me just come back to what 14 Mrs. Bothe said to show you. I think this is very 15 interesting, what was said about it in 1851 in the debates
16 of the constitutional convention at that time.

17 "He," meaning the gentleman who was discussing this
18 very thing, "regarded the principle of peaceful revolution
19 such as that now going on as a precious one. It
20 would be a jewel that would attract the affections and
21 confidence of the people and if placed out of the Bill
