

1 of Rights, while without it, sir, that Bill of Rights
2 would be but an empty casket, unseemingly, valueless."
3 I even read that with probably the original emphasis.

4 MR. SCANLAN: You sound like you were there.

5 MR. CASE: This is what Mrs. Bothe put her
6 finger on, the very thing that keeps coming back.
7 These things are going to be scrapped under this so-called 8 Bill of Rights as we have it now. I think it is terrible.

9 DR. WINSLOW: May I point out, sir, that 10 Article 1 of the present Declaration of Rights does not 11 say peaceable revolution. It says abolish their form of 12 government in such manner as they may deem expedient.
13 Article 1 says we may take up our arms and upset the 14 government and set up a new state. I doubt if we any 15 longer believe this or sanction it.

16 MRS. FREEDLANDER: Mr. Chairman, at the risk
17 of being out of order, I would like to make a few 18 statements. We have met, the Declaration of Rights,
19 met weekly, and we have discussed Thomas Aquinas and all
20 philosophers and go down with Moses and the Ten Command-
21 ments. Something happens to people when they discuss
