

1 in our state.

2 I am saying this because while I do feel
3 that in a number of cases the Committee has better 4 language here -- I support Dr. Bard's position -- than 5 does the present Declaration of Rights, I don't think 6 this is easy, a notable one is in Article 21 where the 7 Declaration of Rights says people shall be allowed 8 counsel, while Section 7, getting ahead, says that 9 they shall have, to have the assistance of counsel. That 10 is a lot stronger, I think, Mr. Case, than the old
11 language.

12 I am speaking, I think, perhaps in support
13 of Mr. Case's basic position that this language, of 14 enormous value in heritage, can be preserved to great 15 purpose but that it can also be rightened in places.

16 MR. CASE: I agree.

17 THE CHAIRMAN: Professor Burdette, may I
18 ask you a question along the same line? Do you read 19 the last part of Article 6 in the same manner or different?

20 MR. SCANLAN: It is clear authorization for 21 violent overthrow of the government.
