

1 submit. Do you have a preference as to those two if
2 the Commission wants to make one or the other changes?

3 MR. GENTRY: Or any department, I suppose,
4 would be better than, branch. Branch, I think, suffers
5 in that it is limited to the Executive legislative and 6 judicial.

7 THE CHAIRMAN: All right, that will be your
8 motion, Mr. Case.

9 MR. CASE: Yes.

10 MR. SCANLAN: I still second in that form.

11 MR. BOND: If this motion is defeated, is it
12 correct, sir, then the Committee's language would be
13 before the Commission for vote?

14 THE CHAIRMAN: That is correct. Any discussion
15 as to the first sentence of Section 2?

16 MRS. BOTHE: I would like to ask Mr. Case --
17 I had assumed on reading this that government encompasses
18 all its branches and departments. Any reason why it
19 doesn't?

20 MR. CASE: I think it could be easily
21 argued that the right to petition the Legislature without
